

DEFINING HAZING

Activities that are considered hazing. (This list is not all-inclusive).

Pledge clean-ups (dishes after meals).
Pledges awakened and kidnapped.
Deception designed to convince the pledge he/she will not be initiated.
Pushing or shoving pledges during movement to various events.
Pledges awakened during the night, quizzed and/or harassed.
Quests, treasure hunt or scavenger hunt.
Late work sessions which interfere with scholastic activities.
Physical and psychological shocks.
Public stunts.
Pledges given shots of alcohol, and then told they don't have to drink it if they don't want to.
Pledges engaged in drinking games with actives.
Pledges used for humiliating games.
Calisthenics, sit-ups and push-ups.
Keeping information concerning joining from the pledges.
Running stairs while reciting material.
Running for the sake of creating "unity".
Yelling and screaming at pledges during line-ups.
Telling a pledge he/she has failed by snuffing out candles in front of him/her.
Brothers/sisters intentionally mess the house or room for pledges to clean.
Pledges booed and hissed or demeaned when they make a mistake in recitation in front of the chapter.
Calling pledges "scum" or other names.
Forcing pledges to wear embarrassing or uncomfortable garments.
Less than six hours of sleep each night during "Hell Week".
Paddle swats.
Forcing pledges to carry pledge books, march, dress in uniform.