

The Multicultural Greek Letter Council
Cornell University

Book Scholarship

Purpose: The Multicultural Greek Letter Council (MGLC) of Cornell University is the governing body for historical African American, Asian interest, and Latino Fraternal organizations. These organizations host different educational, academic, social, and service programs for members of the Cornell and greater Ithaca community.

Scholarship: The MGLC book Scholarship seeks to recognized promising students in the multicultural community for their academic success by providing them with a scholarship to offset the cost of books in the 1st year of college. The scholarship amount is determined based on the number of revenue in the given year.

Eligibility: Any student who is a current senior planning to attend college in the next academic year with a minimum GPA of 2.5 is eligible to apply. Students of a multicultural background (African, Asian, Hispanic/Latino, or Native American descent) are encouraged to apply.
